- (c) do all things necessary for the enforcement of the Subleases, the Bylaws and the rules and regulations of the Homeowners' Corporation, and for the control, management and administration of the Common Area, common facilities or other assets of the Homeowners'

Corporation, generally, including removing privileges in the use of certain facilities, or fixing and collecting fines for contravention of the Bylaws, rules or regulations; and determine the levy for the contingency reserve fund which shall not be less than 5% of the total annual budget, until the reserve reaches an amount that the Homeowners' Corporation considers sufficient having regard to the Common Area and common facilities, and thereafter raise further amounts for replacements of funds from time to time and over a period of time as the Homeowners' Corporation thinks fit;

5. DIRECTORS

NOTE: This section of the Bylaws shall become effective only when the Board of Directors is elected by the shareholders. Until that time all matters relating to composition and operation of the Board, including election or appointment of Directors shall be determined by the Developer in accordance with the terms of the Subleases.

The powers and duties of the Homeowners' Corporation shall, subject to any restriction imposed or direction given at a general meeting, be exercised and performed by the directors of the Homeowners' Corporation.

- (a) The number of members of the Board of Directors and the terms of office will be determined by the Owners from time to time by ordinary resolution.
- (b) Any Owner, in good standing, may stand for election, but no more than one Owner of a Unit can be a Director at any time.
- (c) At least 3 months prior to the AGM, the Board of Directors will publish a call for nominations for Directors to serve the vacating term(s). Nominations will be accepted during a time period of not less than 60 days. Nominations will close 28 days prior to the AGM. All nominations must be submitted in writing to the Board of Directors. Nominations will not be accepted from the floor at the AGM.
- (d) If more Nominees than open positions stand for election to the Board of Directors, they will be elected by secret ballot at the AGM. If less Nominees than open positions stand for election to the Board of Directors all are to be elected by acclamation and any open position may be filled by the elected Board of Directors.
- (e) The Board of Directors will determine from time to time if any officer positions are required and what role each such officer shall have.
- (f) Any Director may call a Board meeting by giving the other Directors at least one week's notice of the meeting, specifying the reason for calling the meeting. Such notice does not have to be in writing.
- (g) A Board meeting may be held on less than one week's notice if all Directors consent in advance of the meeting, or
 1. the meeting is required to deal with an emergency situation and all Directors either consent to the meeting or are unavailable to provide consent after reasonable attempts to contact them.
 2. By an application in writing stating the reason for the request, an Owner may request a hearing at a Board meeting;
 3. if a hearing is requested under subsection (h) above, the Board must hold a meeting to hear the applicant within one month of the request, and

4. if the purpose of the hearing is to seek a decision of the Board, the Board must give the applicant a decision in writing within one week of the hearing.
- (h) A meeting of the Board may be held in any of the following ways:
 1. all participants meeting in person,
 2. some participants meeting in person and others communicating with them, by telephone or other means of communication, so that each participant can hear each of the others, or
 3. all participants communicating with each other, by telephone or other means of communication, so that each participant can hear all of the others.
 - (i) A quorum of the Board is a majority of the Board and Board members must be present to form a quorum.
 - (j) At Board meetings, decisions must be made by the majority of Directors present at the meeting.
 - (k) The results of all votes at a Board meeting must be recorded in the meeting minutes.
 - (l) The Board must inform, and provide to, the Owners the minutes of all Board meeting within 2 weeks of the meeting, whether or not the minutes have been approved. Such provision of the minutes can be by email or, when requested, a printed copy.
 - (m) The Directors may, from time to time, establish rules, regulations, guidelines, and/or user fees regarding the use of the Common Area, Common Facilities or other assets of the Homeowners' Corporation. Further, any and all such amendments that the Directors may establish must be ratified at the next Annual General Meeting.
 - (n) The Homeowners' Corporation may, by a Resolution passed by a majority vote at an AGM or Special General Meeting ("SGM"), remove one or more Directors.
 - (o) After removing a Director(s), the Homeowners' Corporation must hold an election at the same AGM or SGM to replace the removed Director(s) for the remainder of the term.
 - (p) The Directors may remove from office a Director who is convicted of an indictable offence.
 - (q) A person may not spend the Homeowners' Corporations' money unless the person has been approved to do so in accordance with these Bylaws.
 - (r) Despite subsection (q), the Board of Directors may spend the Homeowners' Corporation money to repair or replace common property or common assets if the repair or replacement is immediately required to ensure the safety or prevent significant loss or damage.
 - (s) If a repair or replacement to Common Area or Common Facilities is immediately required to ensure safety or prevent loss or damage, any three Directors may spend the Homeowners' Corporation's money for said repair or replacement within reasonable limitations for such expenditure. Owners must be notified of such activity within 2 weeks of the occurrence.
 - (t) The Homeowners' Corporation may not, except in an emergency, authorize any expenditure exceeding $2,500 which was not set out in the annual budget of the Corporation, unless approved by a special resolution of the owners.

6. FINES/INFRACTIONS

- (g) Notification of a possible violation/infraction of the Bylaws, or Rules and Regulations by an Owner must be received using the appropriate complaint form, which is available from the Board of Directors or the Property Manager. The complaint form must be signed and sent or delivered to the Board of Directors.
- (h) The Board will determine if the complaint is a candidate for dispute resolution, in which case, it will be referred to the Dispute Resolution Committee (pursuant to bylaw 19). If the Dispute Resolution Committee process is not considered appropriate, or is attempted but unsuccessful, or is not acceptable to either party to the complaint, the matter will be referred by the Board to the Property Manager.
- (i) Within a timely manner, upon receipt of the notification, a written notice of the infraction will be sent by the Property Manager to the alleged offender allowing him two (2) weeks from the notification date to stop or correct the alleged Bylaw or Rule and Regulation infraction.
- (j) If, at the end of the two (2) week grace period, the infraction is not stopped or corrected, the Property Manager will notify the offender, by means of a registered letter, that he is now in violation of a Bylaw or Rule and Regulation and will be charged the fines as specified below.
- (k) An infraction or violation of these Bylaws or any rules and regulations established under them on the part of an Owner; his employees, agents, or invitees may be connected, remedied or cured by the Homeowners' Corporation. Any costs or expense so incurred by the Homeowners' Corporation shall be charged to that Owner and shall be added to and become a part of the assessment of that Owner for the month next following the date on which the costs or expenses are incurred, but not necessarily paid by the Homeowners' Corporation, and shall become due and payable on the date of payment of the monthly assessment.
- (l) The Homeowners' Corporation may recover from an Owner by an action for debt in a court of competent jurisdiction money which the Homeowners' Corporation is required to expend as a result of an act or omission by the Owner, his employees, agents, or invitees, or an infraction or violation of these Bylaws or any rules or regulations established under them.
 - 1. Following a letter of warning, and unless otherwise stated in the by-laws, the fine for a violation of the bylaws or any rules and regulations established by the Directors or committee of the Homeowners' Corporation is $100.00 per violation,
 - 2. Unless otherwise stated in the bylaws or rules and regulations, outstanding fines for violations are payable for each month the fine is outstanding and will increase in proportion of the following schedule:

15. DAMAGE TO PROPERTY

- (a) An Owner or resident shall not cause damage to trees, plants, bushes, flowers or lawns and shall not place chairs, tables or other objects on lawns or grounds so as to damage them or prevent growth.

16. SECURITY

- (a) Unit Owners or residents are responsible for anyone they admit onto or about their Unit and the Common Area and common facilities, inclusive of agents, servants, licensees, or invitees.
- (b) The Homeowners' Corporation may form a security committee to provide guidelines for the security of individual Units, and to establish resident-based voluntary crime prevention programs such as Block Watch.

17. MOVING AND RESALE

- (a) It will be the express responsibility of the Owner to ensure that all moves in or out by the Owner or resident conform to the Bylaws, or Rules and Regulations as established by the Homeowners' Corporation from time to time.
- (b) The Homeowners' Corporation shall provide for a central resale Directory board and shall ensure that individual resale signage is restricted to notification in such Directory.

18. NO MODIFICATIONS

- (a) Nothing in these Bylaws modifies, waives or releases the obligations of an Owner pursuant to its Sublease.

19. VOLUNTARY DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- (a) A dispute between owners or between an Owner or Owners and the Homeowners' Corporation or any combination thereof may be referred to a Dispute Resolution Committee if:
 - 1. Any of the parties to the dispute request a hearing,
 - 2. The dispute involves the Bylaws or Rules and Regulations.
- (b) A Dispute Resolution Committee shall consist of one Owner of the Homeowners' Corporation nominated by each of the disputing parties and one member appointed by the Board of Directors who shall chair the Committee.
- (c) A written complaint must be received using the prescribed form and sent to the Homeowners' Corporation by mail or email at their current email address.
- (d) The Dispute Resolution Committee must:
 - 1. Contact both parties for information relevant to the complaint.
 - 2. Provide an amicable mediation process, and
 - 3. Attempt to end the dispute voluntarily.
 - 4. Advise the Board of Directors in writing within 30 days, that the dispute is resolved, or further action is required.
- (e) The Dispute Resolution Committee must observe total confidentiality at all phases of the procedure, to protect the privacy of all parties.
- (f) Voluntary dispute resolution shall be applied before enforcement of Bylaws, or Rules and Regulations, and schedule of fines, whenever possible.
